Summer Reading Assignment

Honors 9th grade Literature & Composition

All students registered for an Honors or AP E/LA course must complete a required reading assignment.

Introduction

Summer assignments ensure that students do not lose that intellectual edge that we work hard to hone at LSHS. The books that every student must read and the format for reporting on that reading are here.

Students must type the assignment (Times New Roman, 12 point font), making sure that they have carefully read and followed the instructions. This assignment is due August 25th no matter which semester you are scheduled to take the course and will count as a summative grade in the gradebook. Assignments not received on August 25th will lose 10 points per week until September 15th when it becomes a zero (0). Students are strongly encouraged to purchase their own copy of the book to annotate and write inside to mark passages, and should expect reading comprehension assessments, discussions, and/or writing assignments on the novels.

The English Department requires students to use in-text, parenthetical documentation following MLA guidelines. Reference the example from the sample journal on page 3 of these instructions. If you still are unsure about how to cite quotations, there are a number of on-line resources you may wish to consult including the following:

A Statement on Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the intentional or unintentional use of another's work (including graphics or audio clips of any sort) or ideas without giving credit. You must put the words of others in quotation marks and cite your source(s). You must give citations when using the ideas of others, even if you paraphrase those ideas. Plagiarism, in any form, is unacceptable and will result in a failing grade.

Part 1: Required Reading

I Hope You Get This Message
by Farah Naz Rishi

There are seven days left until the world ends. That's what is being reported, at least — that in seven days a planet named Alma will hit the kill switch on Earth. Three teens react to this news in very different ways.

OR

Invictus by Ryan Graudin

Farway is the son of a time traveler from 2354 AD and a gladiator from ancient Rome. He has always dreamed of being a time traveler himself, but after he fails his entrance exam, he takes up a captain's position on a ship that steals valuables from the past and sells them on the black market.

Part II: Required Reading Assignment

As you read the novel, keep a double entry journal, ten (10) required entries (entries should be spread throughout the novel). Annotate as you read, and select your quotations based on your annotations. Your journal is due on August 25th no matter which semester you are scheduled to take the course. Completing this assignment correctly will be worth the majority of the assessment, but we will also look at the quality of the quotes you choose and the depth of your response. These journals should be typed (Times New Roman, 12 point font), submitted to the Honors 9th Lit Class through turnitin.com, and labeled as FirstnameLastname_SR; instructions are below.

TurnItIn.com File Upload Submission

(Class ID and Enrollment Key/PW will be provided on the first day of school by your teacher.)

1. Start by clicking on the class name you would like to submit to after logging in to Turnitin.com

2. Click on the Submit button to the right of the assignment name

3. If necessary, select single file upload from the Submit: pull down menu

4. Enter a title for the submission (firstnamelastname_SR)

5. Once the requirements for single file upload have been reviewed, students have a choice to upload a file

6. Click Upload to upload the file

7. Review the preview panel. Click the Confirm button to upload the file to the assignment

8. After the submission is complete a digital receipt is displayed on screen. A copy is also sent via e-mail to the address for the user login. Save the receipt and the submission ID it contains, as this is proof of a completed submission.

Please review the following guidelines and example. Your journal entries should have the same level of thought and interaction with the text. Ten (10) required entries (entries should be spread throughout the novel)

	Text	Literary Response
Directions	Select a significant/iconic quotation and transcribe the text exactly as it appears in the novel. Include the chapter and page number in parentheses at the end of the quotation. Then, mark with an asterisk (*) the ONE passage that you feel gets closest to the heart of the novel—a “quote of quotes” if you will. You must be prepared to defend your quotation choices.	Write your response to the passage. Do not simply summarize the literature; although you need to refer to the texts, the primary purpose of your journal is to think about your response to these texts. Consider: a question that you have, why you think the passage is significant, your reaction to it as you read, etc. Entries should prove that you are thinking as you read. Look for important connections and ideas, character development, plot advancement, theme, symbolism, etc. Entries should be 50-75 words each.
Sample From Beloved	“How come everybody run off from Sweet Home can’t stop talking about it? Look like if it was so sweet you would have stayed” (Morrison 13).	I like the character of Denver—I think Morrison is going to use her to speak the truth when others are afraid to. She asks questions that I have been asking about the story. I think bad things happened after Mr. Garner died. They were slaves—why wouldn’t they run away? It’s important that we find out. (57 words)
