

2023-2024 Lithia Springs High School
Summer Reading Assignment
AP Literature and Composition

All students registered for an Honors or AP Literature course must complete a required reading assignment.

Introduction

Summer assignments ensure that students do not lose that intellectual edge that we work hard to hone at LSHS. The books that every student must read and the format for reporting on that reading are here. Students must type the assignment (Times New Roman, 12 point font), making sure that they have carefully read and followed the instructions. This assignment is due on Fri., August 25th no matter which semester you are scheduled to take the course and will count as a summative grade in the gradebook. Assignments not received on August 25th will lose 10 points per week until September 15th when it becomes a zero (0). Students are strongly encouraged to purchase their own copy of the book to annotate and write inside to mark passages, and should expect reading comprehension assessments, discussions, and writing assignments on the novels. The English Department requires students to use in-text, parenthetical documentation following MLA guidelines. If you are unsure about how to cite quotations, there are a number of on-line resources you may wish to consult including the following:

<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/557/02/>.

A Statement on Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the intentional or unintentional use of another's work (including graphics or audio clips of any sort) or ideas without giving credit. You must put the words of others in quotation marks and cite your source(s). You must give citations when using the ideas of others, even if you paraphrase those ideas. Plagiarism, in any form, is unacceptable and will result in a failing grade.

Part 1: Required Reading: Choose one (1) text pairing from the following list to read over the course of the summer.

A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man by James Joyce & Catcher in the Rye by J.D. Salinger

Dracula by Bram Stoker & The Picture of Dorian Gray by Oscar Wilde

Heart of Darkness by Joseph Conrad & One Hundred Years of Solitude by Gabriel Garcia Marquez

Invisible Man by Ralph Ellison & Sula by Toni Morrison

The Awakening by Kate Chopin & A Doll's House by Henrik Ibsen

The Color Purple by Alice Walker & Their Eyes Were Watching God by Zora Neale Hurston

The Road by Cormac McCarthy & The Children of Men by P. D. James

Part II: Required Reading Journal Assignment

As you read the novels, keep a double entry journal (annotate as you read, and select your quotations based on your annotations). Your journal is due on August 25th no matter which semester you are scheduled to take the course. Completing this assignment correctly will be worth the majority of the assessment, but we will also look at the quality of the quotes you choose and the depth of your response. The required number of entries for EACH text is ten (10) and should be spread throughout the novels. See examples on pg. 3 along with the rubric.

These journals should be typed (Times New Roman, 12-point font), submitted to the AP Lit Class through turnitin.com, and labeled as FirstnameLastname_SR; instructions are below.

Please review the following guidelines and example. Your journal entries should look like the following, with the same level of thought and interaction with the text.

Ten (10) required entries per text (entries should be spread throughout the texts):

	Text	Literary Response
Directions	Select a significant/iconic quotation and transcribe the text exactly as it appears in the novel. Include a parenthetical citation after each quote.	Write your response to the passage. Do not simply summarize the literature; although you need to refer to the texts, the primary purpose of your journal is to think about your response to these texts. Consider: a question that you have, why you think the passage is significant, your reaction to it as you read, etc. Entries should prove that you are thinking as you read. Look for important connections and ideas, character development, plot advancement, theme, symbolism, etc.  Entries should be 75-125 words each.
Sample From Frankenstein	“Although I possessed the capacity of bestowing animation, yet to prepare a frame for the reception of it, with all its intricacies of fibres, muscles, and veins, still remained a work of inconceivable difficulty and labour. . . . It was with these feelings that began the creation of a human being.” (Shelley 71).	The passage shows us that Victor was not completely mad when he thought about making an animal/ human being like himself. He considered the effect this would have on his character and the world for a split second, but the idea was so enticing that he had to do it. When Victor went off to school, he left everything and everyone he knew. The absence of friendship left Victor to completely focus on his studies and drove him mad. (79 words)
